Response to article by Bill Moularadellis in WBM

In the latest issue of WBM (September/October 2020), Bill Moularadellis of Kingston Estate has shared his views about Wine Australia's performance. Mr Moularadellis is welcome to express his views.

One comment, however, requires a specific response. There is no evidence that Wine Australia would or has used its regulatory powers inappropriately. Wine Australia uses its regulatory powers as prescribed.

About Wine Australia

Wine Australia supports a competitive wine sector by investing in research, development and extension (RD&E), growing domestic and international markets, protecting the reputation of Australian wine and administering the Export and Regional Wine Support Package.

Wine Australia is an Australian Commonwealth Government statutory authority, established under the Wine Australia Act 2013, and funded by grape growers and winemakers through levies and user-pays charges and the Australian Government, which provides matching funding for RD&E investments.
